Further information when personal advice is given

We will provide you with further information whenever we provide you with advice which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. This information may include the advice that we have given you, the basis of the advice and other information on our remuneration and any relevant associations or interests. This information may be contained in a statement of advice (SOA) or Advice Document.

When you ask us to recommend an insurance policy for you, we will usually only consider the policies offered by the insurers or insurance providers that we deal with regularly. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of recommended polices we have not compared those policies to other policies available, other than from those insurers we deal with regularly.

Product disclosure statement

If we offer to arrange the issue of an insurance policy to you, we will also provide you with, or pass on to you, a product disclosure statement (PDS), unless you already have an up to date PDS from the insurer. The PDS will contain information about the particular policy, which will enable you to make an informed decision about purchasing that policy.

Lack of Independence

Why we are not independent, impartial or unbiased in relation to the provision of personal advice and the impact of this on you

This is because PSC or our representatives receive remuneration from:

- The issuer of the product you buy
- Other third parties for related services provided in connection with the personal advice e.g. premium funders

This remuneration does not impact the price you pay for the product you buy nor reduce our obligation to always act in your best interests. Further in this document explains how this remuneration is calculated and how PSC manages any possible conflict of interests. You are always entitled to request information on your fees and commissions in respect to the products you buy.
